The Hills Youth and Family Services

Woodland Hills | Cambia Hills | Neighborhood Youth Services

Rockridge Academy now OPEN!

Staff, students, and teachers were excited to be in their new educational space when school resumed after Winter Break.

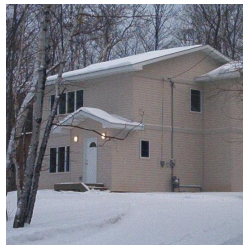

Rockridge Academy welcomed their first class of students on January 5, 2018. The school, formerly Rockridge Elementary, has been remodeled to fit the needs of youth in Woodland Hills Juvenile Justice Residential and Cambia Hills Residential and Day Treatment programs.

Community Transition Program (CTP)

Are you working with young men ages 16-18 (or up to 20 if designated Extended Juvenile Jurisdiction) that need transitional housing?

The Hills Youth and Family Services' Community Transition Program is a service that teaches young men the self-sufficiency required to live independently.

We offer services that address education, employment, substance abuse, money management, transportation, nutrition, and so much more!

Our structured setting is conducive to the development of productivity, independence, self-reliance, and personal growth.

Youth must be motivated toward independent living and have a willingness to establish and accomplish case plan goals.

Immediate Openings.
